Lisa was walking through the park by herself. She saw all the beautiful FLOWERS and TREES and even a few BUTTERFLIES and TURTLES! Since there were no other CHILDREN around to play with and she was very lonely she decided to sit down at the CHAIR at the picnic TABLE and eat her lunch. She ate her PB&J SANDWICH and started to eat her PRETZELS but couldn't finish them because she was too full.

Since nobody was there and nobody was looking, Lisa just left her garbage all over the TABLE and even some of it scattered around her CHAIR. Then she went to draw some pictures under a TREE.

A few minutes later she heard the sounds of barking DOGS, roaring LIONS, slithering SNAKES, and soaring EAGLES. They were all eating the PRETZELS! The LION said, "Thanks for the grub." But the DOG said, "Why did you make such a big mess? These FLOWERS and TREES are the decorations of our home. Shame, Shame on you... that wasn't very nice!"

Lisa felt horrible and helped all the animals clean up the park. Then a bunny came by and said how beautiful it was at the park. He took three deeeeeeeeeep BUNNY BREATHS in his nose and one out his mouth. After all the snacking, and cleaning, and deep breathing they were all so tired... SG.
