SUGGESTIONS FOR A BLISS

Read a Jewish book
“Do you guys want to READ A BOOK?” Straddle legs out and in for reading a “leg book”. “Open/close... Open/close.” Move one leg at a time to the other to “turn the page... turn the page.” Don’t let them use their arms. Do the same with the feet for a “foot book.” And for the arms and hands... a “handbook!” Get it? Here’s what it sounds like... be creative:
“What are you reading? Is it a BIG book... like the Tanach or a SMALL book like Sammy Spider? Are we reading about Israel?? Don’t forget the FACEBOOK! Shana Punim! A Facebook about a Lion/Fish/Puffer Fish/Prune. Encourage conversation and teach them something. Gear your conversation to their age and what they are studying. The possibilities are endless.

Encourage conversation and teach them something. Gear your conversation to their age and discuss Mitzvot. Get creative and let children create the rest of the bliss: It’s a mitzvah to:

- be kind to animals
- help your parents around the house
- give compliments to friends
- celebrate Jewish holidays
- go to synagogue

Noah's Ark
“Have you heard the story of Noah and his ark? He built a BIG BOAT. He didn't build a sail boat (arms over your head). He didn't build a Kayak (paddle your arms). He didn’t build a motor boat (kick your feet back and forth). He built a boat big enough to carry all of the animals on Earth, 2 by
2. What animals do you think he had on the Ark? DOG? CATS? COWS? Do you think he saw DOLPHINS swimming along side of his BOAT? What do you think Noah thought when he saw a dove with an olive branch? YES! There must be TREE nearby."
